Kindly refer to the above mentioned letter.

The clarifications to your queries are provided as per Rule-13 of MPKBY Agency Rules, 1981:-

1. Yes, a messenger can be appointed on behalf of an MPKBY agent in the absence of the agent from Headquarters. The MPKBY agent has to execute a Supplementary agreement in the form of Annexure - 6 indemnifying the Government that if any loss arises due to the messenger transacting business, the MPKBY agent will bear the loss on her behalf.
2. The appointing authority is competent to appoint the messenger on behalf of the agent.
3. There is no definite period mentioned in the Rules. It may be given at a time for not more than 6 months.

Encl:1(Rule-13)

Yours faithfully,

(B.Raju Babu)

Regional Director
NSI, Chennai.
